

Petition for Oral Argument at the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal

View Current Signatures - Sign the Petition

To: U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal

Dr. Yue, a pro se litigant, requests the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal to grant ORAL ARGUMENT in his case against two large corporations and individual defendants. At the federal district court, the judge told Dr. Yue to "cease and desist" from filing papers. The following was the exchange afterwards (transcript):

DR. YUE: WHAT'S THE COURT'S LEGAL RATIONALE FOR THAT?

THE COURT: THAT IS THE RATIONALE, AND THAT'S THE STATEMENT.

DR. YUE: FOLLOWING RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE – (interrupted)

THE COURT: MR. YUE, I AM GOING TO HAVE YOU TAKEN OUT IF YOU DON'T BE QUIET.

After Dr. Yue sued Sun Microsystems and StorageTek for stealing his software, the judge quickly dismissed his case without leave to amend and before defendants filed any responsive pleading. Dr. Yue now appeals to the Ninth Circuit (Case Number 08-15927). Dr. Yue believes that oral argument should be held because he was denied in his day in the federal district court and he should be given the opportunity to argue his cause before the judges of the court of appeal.

Please grant Dr. Yue's Request for Oral Argument.

Sincerely,

The Undersigned

1	Chungchi Che	Che8888@	Dr. Yue should have more time to express.
2	Kristi Devine	devi nek	Dear Judge: All that we ask is a chance to be heard in the pursuit of justice. Please grant us that opportunity and help make justice accessible to all and not just something that can only be attained with money. The world will be a far better place when those that do wrong face consequences. The courts are needed to be accessible to all for such.
3	Timothy Enos		Dr. Yue should be granted his day in court (i.e. He should be treated with as much (if not more) dignity as would be any duly licensed lawyer). Pro se litigants, including Dr. Yue, should (even MUST) be allowed to present cases before ANY court in the land (there's nothing special about the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal).
4	Steve McDonough	daddyozz
5	Yong Li		The right to be heard is a fundamental right, see Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) "Many controversies have raged about the cryptic and abstract words of the Due Process Clause but there can be no doubt that at a minimum they require that deprivation of life, liberty or property by adjudication be preceded by notice and opportunity for hearing appropriate to the nature of the case."
7	Carol Shi		If the Ninth Circuit Court has its' desire to correct the wrongdoing made by the District Court, Dr. Yue's petition for Oral Argument should be granted.
8	Steven Li		I read Dr. Yue's case from the internet and knew that the District Court failed to find the truth from the fact. The Judge just has a prejudice against Dr. Yue- Pro se.

27	Gloria Grening Wolk	ggwol k@	I just completed a legal malpractice against CA lawyer Philip R. Green, in federal court in San Francisco. I was fortunate that Judge Zimmerman was of the highest quality and strove to be absolutely impartial. I know this is unusual, when a non-lawyer is pro se, which is why I am writing a guide book for pro se litigants whose cases are in the category of "complex civil." Dr. Yue's experiences, hopefully with more justice than he has had to date, will be part of the book.
28	Joseph Delgado	pul se-fc	As the Founder of P.U.L.S.E. (People United for Legal System Equality), I support your quest to have your rights as a Pro Se Litigant completely honored and respected. I believe pro se litigation is a constitutionally-protected right. Hopefully, your supporters will view and sign my PLEDGE OF SOLIDARITY (located at http://www.gopetition.com/online/11773.html). The American right to self-litigation will never be fully honored until the People organize peacefully in support thereof. Until then, the legal system will continue to be run by lawyers for the benefit of lawyers and those who rely on them for representation.

93	Michael Zhou	rmzebay@	I fully support you 100%, Dr Yue. Often times our country is not ruled by the law, but by these very judges who sit in their high chairs and interpret law at their own discretion. Often times, judges can just tell you "white is black" and what can you really do about that? They can do whatever they want. There is no so called "checks and balances" for average people, you don't have the means (money and time) to fight it. When your skin color is shown, you are already discriminated, without a doubt. It just makes me puke.

231	J. LeFave	jtlefave	The real danger of this from a public policy standpoint is twofold: 1) It will kill creativity. The vast majority of innovation and creativity comes from individuals, and as it gradually becomes known among the population that the have no equality before the law, they will stop inventing. This will accelerate the decline of the USA as the leading technology giant of the world.
